

Moving Day Is Coming – Eliminate the Stress!

There will be lots of activity on moving day, and during some part of the day, you may not be able to direct the activity around you as to where to have movers place boxes. So help yourself be organized

So, help yourself with my Moving Day Labels. The following pages are labels for about every room of your home. Here are my simple instructions to help you:

1. About a week before moving, and while your color printer is still available, print out the pages of my Moving Day Labels for the rooms for your new home. [Use EVERY Labels 8163 or 5163 2 x 4 Shipping Labels]
2. For big rooms, like the Kitchen or Library, you may want to print out two or three pages of labels
3. For smaller rooms, like the hall bathroom, you may only need to print out one page of labels.
4. DON'T SKIMP! Have plenty of labels for the boxes you anticipate having!
5. Obviously, you will put a label on every box of the specific room so that anyone can know which box goes in which room at the new home.
6. The key to this move is to then have one label available for the new home and place the label on the door frame. That way, any person will know by color coding, which box goes in each room.

Hope this helps. I found it to be a key to our last move and wanted to share this tip with you.
